P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, the second Sunday in May of each year is recognized throughout most of the world as MOTHER'S DAY; a day set aside to commemorate and pay tribute to the tender memory of the one person all mankind remembers with everlasting and steadfast reverence; and

WHEREAS, fortunate are those who this year may turn to mother and pay her on this Mother's Day the tribute she so richly deserves;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harlan J. Bushfield, Governor of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, May 11, as and ask all of the citizens of the State of South Dakota to observe this day by writing or going home, or showing other fitting remembrance; and also that the American flag be displayed on this day from all public buildings, schools, homes, and other suitable places.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Pierre, this 1st day of May, 1941.
